Have We Ceased to be a Common Law Country?
A Conversation on Unpublished, Depublished, Withdrawn and Per Curiam Opinions

Friday, March 18, 2005, 9 a.m.—3 p.m.
Moot Courtroom
THE WASHINGTON AND LEE UNIVERSITY
SCHOOL OF LAW
Lexington, Virginia

Sponsored by:
The Frances Lewis Law Center
and the Washington and Lee Law Review

REGISTER ON LINE OR BY MAIL TODAY!
Due to a generous gift by Sydney and Frances Lewis to promote law reform, there is no fee for attending the conference. For planning purposes, please register in advance if possible.

NAME (please print)
ADDRESS

CITY STATE
TELEPHONE FAX
E-MAIL ADDRESS

CLE credit is expected in Virginia. If you have any questions, please contact Ms. Terry Evans at (540) 458-8509 or evanst@wlu.edu.

Applying for CLE credit:
☐ Yes ☐ No

Send registration to:
Washington and Lee University
School of Law
Sydney Lewis Hall
Attn: Terry Evans
Lexington, VA 24450-0303

You may also register on line by going to: law.wlu.edu/lawcenter/conference.asp

If you have any questions about registration or the symposium, please contact:
Professor David Caudill (540) 458-8514; caudilld@wlu.edu
Terry Evans (540) 458-8509; evanst@wlu.edu

TRAVEL/ACCOMMODATIONS
The Washington and Lee University School of Law is situated in Lexington, VA, in the Shenandoah Valley. Travel access by car is on I-81 or by airlines serving the Roanoke Regional Airport (50 miles from campus). Lexington has a number of picturesque bed and breakfast inns and hotels.

Web site: law.wlu.edu/lawcenter/conference.asp
The ongoing controversy over the rules and practices concerning publication and citation of judicial opinions raises questions about the status of our common law. Join us on March 18, 2005, for a thought-provoking symposium to consider the implications of unpublishation, depublication, and other forms of withdrawal of the per curiam opinion. For more information, contact David Caldwill at Caldwill@wlu.law, (540) 458-8514, or visit law.wlu.edu/lawcenter/conference.aspx

Have We Ceased to be a Common Law Country?: A Conversation on Unpublished, Depublished, Withdrawn and Per Curiam Opinions

Arthur is the Max Freund Professor and the Coeditor of the Pretrial Practice Program at Benard Cardozo School of Law, Yeshiva University. He holds a B.A., J.D., and Ph.D. (Government) from Harvard University and a J.D. (with Bernard Schlink) and a Jurist's Degree from the University of Breslau (with Heinrich Schmid). Justice and the Legal System: A Coursebook (with Anthony D'Amato), and The Longest Night: Perspectives on Policing in Europe 2000 (a book of essays co-edited with Michael Rosenfeld)

Panel I: The Controversy and the Rules

Panel II: Moral and Ethical Dimensions of the Controversy

Break

Lunch (on your own; snack bar on site)

Keynote Address: The Honorable Samuel A. Alito

How Did We Get Here? Where Are We Going?

SCHEDULE—March 18, 2005

8:30 – 9 a.m. Registration

9:00 – 11:00 a.m. Panel I: The Controversy and the Rules

11:00 – 11:15 a.m. Break

11:15 a.m. – 1:15 p.m. Lunch (on your own; snack bar on site)

1:15 – 3:00 p.m. Panel II: Moral and Ethical Dimensions of the Controversy

Arthur is the Max Freund Professor and the Coeditor of the Pretrial Practice Program at Benard Cardozo School of Law, Yeshiva University. He holds a B.A., J.D., and Ph.D. (Government) from Harvard University and a J.D. (with Bernard Schlink) and a Jurist's Degree from the University of Breslau (with Heinrich Schmid). Justice and the Legal System: A Coursebook (with Anthony D'Amato), and The Longest Night: Perspectives on Policing in Europe 2000 (a book of essays co-edited with Michael Rosenfeld)

Panel I: The Controversy and the Rules

Panel II: Moral and Ethical Dimensions of the Controversy

Break

Lunch (on your own; snack bar on site)

Keynote Address: The Honorable Samuel A. Alito

How Did We Get Here? Where Are We Going?

SCHEDULE—March 18, 2005

8:30 – 9 a.m. Registration

9:00 – 11:00 a.m. Panel I: The Controversy and the Rules

11:00 – 11:15 a.m. Break

11:15 a.m. – 1:15 p.m. Lunch (on your own; snack bar on site)

1:15 – 3:00 p.m. Panel II: Moral and Ethical Dimensions of the Controversy