Attendance: Unless otherwise noted, all Orientation events prior to Monday, August 25 are optional. However, all Orientation events beginning August 25 through August 27 are mandatory for all first-year students.

Dress Code: While there is no dress code for Orientation, there will be a number of employers in the building interviewing our second-year students during this time. Your appearance and conduct during Orientation will likely inform their impression of our law school and student body. Some of the Orientation activities will require you to walk to various locations on both sides of campus. Consequently, you are encouraged to wear comfortable footwear. Please note, on Monday, August 25 during the Registration process, you will take a picture for the law school facebook. This picture will be shared with faculty and, on occasion, employers. Please dress professionally for this photo. Business attire is recommended.

Guests: Spouses and significant others are welcome to attend Sunday evening’s “Meet and Greet” and Wednesday evening’s picnic. They are also welcome to attend the social event on Thursday night and participate in the service projects on Friday afternoon.

Laptops: Laptops are NOT permitted in any of the Orientation sessions.

Food: Food will only be served as indicated on the schedule below. Food will NOT be served during any of the break periods. Students are encouraged to bring their own snacks.

Our goal for Orientation is to welcome you to the law school and prepare you for the start of your first year. We are excited to have you join us in Lexington!
