Welcome to Civil Procedure! On Monday, we will discuss the structure and goals of the United States system of civil procedure, and we will begin to delve into the famed (or infamous) case of Pennoyer v. Neff. On Tuesday, we will finish our discussion of Pennoyer and turn to Hess v. Pawloski. Accordingly, the assignment for the first week of class (Monday and Tuesday) is to read pages 1-35 and pages 193-196 of SPENCER, CIVIL PROCEDURE, A CONTEMPORARY APPROACH, 4TH ED. The casebook is available at the school bookstore, through various online vendors, and electronically through West Publishing (http://www.westacademic.com/). The syllabus and further information about the course will be distributed on the first day of class. Have a pleasant weekend, and I look forward to seeing you on Monday
